"Very early on Sunday morning, just at sunrise, they went to the tomb. On the way they were asking each other, "Who will roll away the stone for us from the entrance of the tomb?" v. 2-3; But as they arrived, they looked up and saw that the stone, which was very large, had already been rolled aside." v. 4; "Sunddenly there was a great earthquake! For an angel of the Lord came down from heaven, rolled aside the ststone, and sat on it. His face shone like lightning, and his clothing was as white as snow. The guards shook with fear when they saw him, and they fell into a dead faint. The guards went into the city and told the leading priests what had happened. A meeting with the elders was called, and they decided to give the soldiers a large bribe. They told the soldiers, "You must say, 'Jesus' disciples came during the night while we were sleeping, and they stole his body...' So the guards accepted the bribe and said what they were told to say. Their story spread widely among the Jews, and they still tell it today."

Matthew 28:2-4, 12-15
